Sl No.	Item	Brief Content
1	TITLE : Dairy scheme
2	Location	Laitkynsew,Shella Bholaganj Block,East Khasi Hills
3	Name of the farmer-Smt.Alda Mary Badwar	Mobile no.
4	Background of the case	Assisted with Dairy unit of Rs.70500/-per unit during 2007-08 with 2 nos. milch cows. With growing demand of milk in and around the locality and the dedication of the farmer she was again assisted with special plan assistance 2010-11 with Rs.1,74,482/-per unit.
5	Description of the project including source of funding	50% dairy scheme for educated unemployed youth during 2007-08 of Rs.70500/- per unit & dairy unit of Rs.1,74,482/-per unit under special plan assistance 2010-11.
6	Technology/improved practice adopted	Trained at Vocational training institute, Kyrdemkulai, Deptt of A.H.& Vety,Meghalaya.
7	The implementation of the project	After the training the farmer are supplied with building materials for the construction of th e shed.On completion of the same inputs like feeding equipments,feed,feed supplements and milch cows were supplied accordingly.
8	The working capital for the project	The projects are purely in kind.
9	The economics of running the project	Since the project was not involve in any loan component the returns from the project were invested as revolving fund in continuing the project at large.
10	Benefits accrued from the project and future plan	Local employment avenues could be created through the project.

Sl No.	Item	Brief Content
1	TITLE : Dairy scheme
2	Location	Mawjrong,Laitkroh Block,East Khasi Hills
3	Name of the farmer-Smt.Aitilang Kurkalang	Mobile no.
4	Background of the case	Assisted with piggery unit of Rs.14500/-per unit during 2007-08 with 2 nos gilts&1 boar.With growing demand of milk in and around the locality shifted her interest to dairy farming.Through the dedication of the farmer she was again assisted with special pla n assistance 2010-11 with Rs.1,74,482/-per unit.
5	Description of the project including source of funding	50% piggery scheme for general farmer during 2007-08 per unit & dairy unit of Rs.1,74,482/-per unit under special plan assistance 2010-11.
6	Technology/improved practice adopted	Trained at Vocatonal training institute,Kyrdemkulai,Deptt of A.H.& Vety,Meghalaya.
7	The implementation of the project	After the training the farmer are supplied with building materials for the construction of th e shed.On completion of the same inputs like feeding equipments,feed,feed supplements and animals were supplied accordingly.
8	The working capital for the project	The projects are purely in kind.
9	The economics of running the project	Since the project was not involve in any loan component the returns from the project were invested as revolving fund in continuing the project at large.
10	Benefits accrued from the project and future plan	Local employment avenues could be created through the project.

Sl No.	Item	Brief Content
1	TITLE : Piggery Breeding scheme
2	Location	Mawjrong,Laitkroh Block,East Khasi Hills
3	Name of the farmer-Sister Delphina M. Ferrando girls hostel.	Mobile no.
4	Background of the case	Started the project on their own resource with the intention to create awareness on vocational training to the girls in the hostel.With the increasing numbers of girls enrolled in the hostel the need for availing assistance was felt and hence through the participation of the trained girls they were assisted with piggery breeding unit under special pla n assistance 2010-11 with Rs.1,80,541/-per unit.
5	Description of the project including source of funding	Piggery Breeding unit of Rs.1,80,541/-per unit under special plan assistance 2010-11.
6	Technology/improved practice adopted	Trained at Vocational training institute,Kyrdemkulai,Deptt of A.H.& Vety,Meghalaya.
7	The implementation of the project	After the training the farmer are supplied with building materials for the construction of th e shed.On completion of the same inputs like feeding equipments,feed,feed supplements and animals were supplied accordingly.
8	The working capital for the project	The projects are purely in kind.
9	The economics of running the project	Since the project was not involve in any loan component the returns from the project were invested as revolving fund in continuing the project at large.
10	Benefits accrued from the project and future plan	Local employment avenues could be created through the project.

Sl No.	Item	Brief Content
1	TITLE : Piggery Breeding scheme
2	Location	Laittyra,Shella Bholaganj Block,East Khasi Hills
3	Name of the farmer-Ehdaw bee-keeping industrial & multi purpose co-operative society ltd.	Mobile no.
4	Background of the case	The non-availability of piglets in and around the locality prompted the society to start the project on their own resource.With the increasing demand of pigs the need for availing assistance was felt and hence through the participation of the trained members they were assisted with piggery breeding unit under special pla n assistance 2010-11 with Rs.1,80,541/-per unit.
5	Description of the project including source of funding	Piggery Breeding unit of Rs.1,80,541/-per unit under special plan assistance 2010-11.
6	Technology/improved practice adopted	Trained at Vocational training institute, Kyrdemkulai, Deptt of A.H.& Vety., Meghalaya.
7	The implementation of the project	After the training the farmer are supplied with building materials for the construction of the shed. On completion of the same inputs like feeding equipments, feed, feed supplements and animals were supplied accordingly.
8	The working capital for the project	The projects are purely in kind.
9	The economics of running the project	Since the project was not involved in any loan component the returns from the project were invested as revolving fund in continuing the project at large.
10	Benefits accrued from the project and future plan	Local employment avenues could be created through the project.

Sl No.	Item	Brief Content
1	TITLE : Piggery Fattening scheme
2	Location	Siej Laitkynsew,Shella Bholaganj Block,East Khasi Hills
3	Name of the farmer-Kyntiew shaphrang SHG	Mobile no.
4	Background of the case	The non-availability of pigs for meat purpose in and around the locality prompted the group to start the project on their own resource.With the increasing demand of pigs the need for availing assistance was felt and hence through the participation of the trained members they were assisted with piggery fattening unit under special pla n assistance 2010-11 with Rs.1,74,482/- per unit.
5	Description of the project including source of funding	Piggery fattening unit of Rs.1,74,482/-per unit under special plan assistance 2010-11.
6	Technology/improved practice adopted	Trained at Vocational training institute,Kyrdemkulai,Deptt of A.H.& Vety,Meghalaya.
7	The implementation of the project	After the training the farmer are supplied with building materials for the construction of th e shed.On completion of the same inputs like feeding equipments,feed,feed supplements and animals were supplied accordingly.
8	The working capital for the project	The projects are purely in kind.
9	The economics of running the project	Since the project was not involve in any loan component the returns from the project were invested as revolving fund in continuing the project at large.
10	Benefits accrued from the project and future plan	Local employment avenues could be created through the project.

Sl No.	Item	Brief Content
1	TITLE : Piggery Fattening scheme
2	Location	Sohlab,Shella ,East Khasi Hills
3	Name of the farmer-Shri. Princestarwel Sarubai	Mobile no.
4	Background of the case	The non-availability of pigs for meat purpose in and around the locality prompted the farmer to start the project on his own resource.With the increasing demand of pigs the need for availing assistance was felt and hence through the participation of the trained farmer he was assisted with piggery fattening unit under special pla n assistance 2010-11 with Rs.1,74,482/-per unit.
5	Description of the project including source of funding	Piggery Breeding unit of Rs.1,74,4821/-per unit under special plan assistance 2010-11.
6	Technology/improved practice adopted	Trained at Vocational training institute,Kyrdemkulai,Deptt of A.H.& Vety,Meghalaya.
7	The implementation of the project	After the training the farmer are supplied with building materials for the construction of th e shed.On completion of the same inputs like feeding equipments,feed,feed supplements and animals were supplied accordingly.
8	The working capital for the project	The projects are purely in kind.
9	The economics of running the project	Since the project was not involve in any loan component the returns from the project were invested as revolving fund in continuing the project at large.
10	Benefits accrued from the project and future plan	Local employment avenues could be created through the project.

Sl No.	Item	Brief Content
1	TITLE : Kuroiler scheme
2	Location	Laitsohpliah,Laitkroh Block
3	Name of the farmer-Baniaineh SHG
4	Background of the case	With the growing demand of poultry meat consumption in and around the village, the group started on their own resources initially and with active participation of the members the group was assisted with Kuroiler unit under the special plan assistance 2010-2011 of Rs.62,000/- per unit.
5	Description of the project including source of funding	Kuroiler unit of Rs.62,000/-per unit under special plan assistance 2010-11.
6	Technology/improved practice adopted	Trained at Vocational training institute,Kyrdemkulai,Deptt of A.H.& Vety,Meghalaya.
7	The implementation of the project	After the training the farmer are supplied with building materials for the construction of th e shed.On completion of the same inputs like feeding equipments,feed,feed supplements and birds were supplied accordingly.
8	The working capital for the project	The projects are purely in kind.
9	The economics of running the project	Since the project was not involve in any loan component the returns from the project were invested as revolving fund in continuing the project at large.
10	Benefits accrued from the project and future plan	Local employment avenues could be created through the project.

Sl No.	Item	Brief Content
1	TITLE : Kuroiler scheme
2	Location	Nongthymmai, Laitlyngkot, Laitkroh Block, East Khasi Hills
3	Name of the farmer-Shri. Hamarbamutlang Khongwir	Mobile no.
4	Background of the case	The growing demand of poultry meat consumption in and around the area, prompted the farmer to take up the project on his own resource.Through the dedication and active participation of the farmer he was availed assistance with Kuroiler unit under special pla n assistance 2010-11 of Rs.62,000/-per unit.
5	Description of the project including source of funding	Kuroiler unit of Rs.62,000/-per unit under special plan assistance 2010-11.
6	Technology/improved practice adopted	Trained at Vocational training institute,Kyrdemkulai,Deptt of A.H.& Vety,Meghalaya.
7	The implementation of the project	After the training the farmer are supplied with building materials for the construction of the shed.On completion of the same inputs like feeding equipments,feed,feed supplements and birds were supplied accordingly.
8	The working capital for the project	The projects are purely in kind.
9	The economics of running the project	Since the project was not involved in any loan component the returns from the project were invested as revolving fund in continuing the project at large.
10	Benefits accrued from the project and future plan	Local employment avenues could be created through the project.

Sl No.	Item	Brief Content
1	TITLE : Piggery Breeding scheme
2	Location	Mawmluh,Shella Bholaganj Block,East Khasi Hills
3	Name of the farmer-Shri Kynphambor Marbaniang	Mobile no.
4	Background of the case	The non-availability of piglets in and around the locality prompted the farmer to start the project on his own resource.With the increasing demand of pigs the need for availing assistance was felt and hence through the active participation & dedication of the farmer he was assisted with piggery breeding unit under special pla n assistance 2010-11 with Rs.1,80,541/-per unit.
5	Description of the project including source of funding	Piggery Breeding unit of Rs.1,80,541/-per unit under special plan assistance 2010-11.
6	Technology/improved practice adopted	Trained at Vocational training institute,Kyrdemkulai,Deptt of A.H.& Vety,Meghalaya.
7	The implementation of the project	After the training the farmer are supplied with building materials for the construction of th e shed.On completion of the same inputs like feeding equipments,feed,feed supplements and animals were supplied accordingly.
8	The working capital for the project	The projects are purely in kind.
9	The economics of running the project	Since the project was not involve in any loan component the returns from the project were invested as revolving fund in continuing the project at large.
10	Benefits accrued from the project and future plan	Local employment avenues could be created through the project.

Sl No.	Item	Brief Content
1	TITLE : Kuroiler scheme
2	Location	Nongsawlia,Shella Bholaganj Block,East Khasi Hills
3	Name of the farmer-Smt. Trimila Riahtam	Mobile no.
4	Background of the case	The growing demand of poultry meat consumption in and around the locality prompted the farmer to start the project on her own resource. Through dedication and active participation she was availed assistance with Kuroiler unit under special pla n assistance 2010-11 of Rs.62,000/-per unit.
5	Description of the project including source of funding	Kuroiler unit of Rs.62,000/-per unit under special plan assistance 2010-11.
6	Technology/improved practice adopted	Trained at Vocational training institute,Kyrdemkulai,Deptt of A.H.& Vety. Meghalaya.
7	The implementation of the project	After the training the farmer are supplied with building materials for the construction of th e shed. On completion of the same inputs like feeding equipments, feed, feed supplements and birds were supplied accordingly.
8	The working capital for the project	The projects are purely in kind.
9	The economics of running the project	Since the project was not involved in any loan component the returns from the project were invested as revolving fund in continuing the project at large.
10	Benefits accrued from the project and future plan	Local employment avenues could be created through the project.

Dr (Mrs) S.M.Kharbudon,
Sub-Divisional A.H. & Vety Officer,
Sohra.